J. AMBRE'S SON'S.

[mar 11] —The people of Tennessee vote spontaneously on the prohibition of the last Thursday September, which is the 29th day of the month.

—Henry Ward Beecher, the greatest American preacher, who died in Brooklyn, New York, on the 8th, was 74 years old.

—PASTURAGE, for horses and cattle, at $1.50 per month, or 30 cents per week; payable monthly, or when stock is taken off. Pasture of good clover and spring water.

J. W. CONWELL,

[mar 11] —The weather in the Northwest has been extremely variable the past winter, and it is expected that very high water will be the result this spring at St. Louis.

—Ex-Coy. Blackburn, who has been ill at the time of Judge Joseph D. Lyle's trial, has sufficiently recovered to sit up and walk across his room without assistance.
